

Meet Tracey

Tracey is a humanoid robot, she is engaging, entertaining and she's sure to attract major attention your trade show!

She'll talk with attendees about your products and/or services, and on her interactive 32" display screen will play videos, presentations, quizzes and more.

Tracey Draws BIG Attendee Attention. Tracey's designed to attract attendees and start conversations that lead to new customers & increased sales.

Hundreds of Pictures and Videos will be Taken. Attendees love to have their picture taken with Tracey to share with co-workers and social media. With your company logo/branding on the robot you'll reach those that did not attend the show; extending your branding.

Get tons of PR! In addition to being a hit with attendees, Tracey will get your company lots of PR. Tracey has appeared on CNN, FOX, ABC, in trade online and print publications, etc.

Tracey Loves Event Marketing!

Prior to your trade show we'll program Tracey to talk and interact with attendees as your company's greeter & sales rep.

Tracey's 32" screen can feature PowerPoints, pdfs, videos, games, quizzes, surveys, etc. that promote your company's brand, products and services.

Tracey even talks & scans badges, she's a lead/sales generation machine!

Reserve Tracey today, quantities are limited.
