

The Art of the Escape

Welcome to our escape chamber. In this experience we place you or you and a friend in a futuristic engineering room behind a locked door. Using a set of tools and your wit you must find clues and solve puzzles to open the door to escape. Feel the thrill and enjoy the mystery and excitement with each discovery you make.

VR

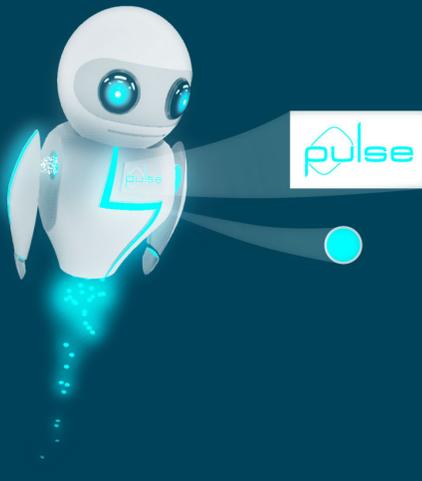

The Game

The door is locked. A large menacing timer counting down. You don't know where to begin you just know you need to escape. Looking around the room you find your first clue. The game is afoot.

Escape Room For Your Next Event

Our escape room can be a solo adventure or you can work as a team to find your way out. This experience can be used as a team building activation at your next event.

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in game brand ambassador named Pluckey. If you need a clue, Pluckey can help.

Customize for your Brand

We have built our experience to be customized for your brand. Change colors, add branding, make the puzzles relate to your message.

You can also add a brand video at the end. When the doors open a video will play, you have the player's attention, now is your time to tell your story.

Backcountry Shredding

Welcome to VR snowboard racing game, Backcountry Shredding. Get ready to take on the most dangerous, wild and crazy snowboarding course ever in the safety of VR. Experience thrills like never before and race your friends as you snowboard down the mountain avoiding outrageous obstacles as you go.

VR

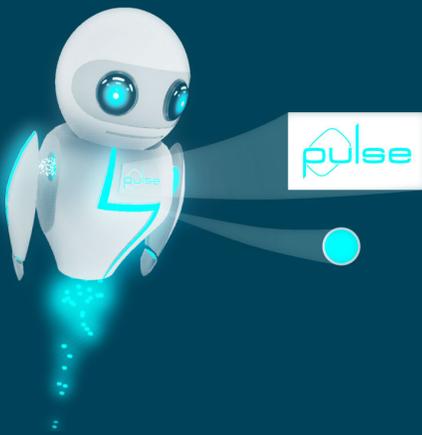

The Game

You stand with your friends in the back of a cargo plane, you hear the roar of the engines around you. The cargo door slowly opens and you see yourself flying over mountains and snow covered trees. You look up and see the red light change to yellow and then green. You jump out of the plane onto the top of the mountain. The race has begun and you get the feeling it is just going to get crazier.

Backcountry Shredding for your Next Event

Our snowboard racing adventure can be played as a solo adventure or you can compete against your friends.

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in game brand ambassador named Pluckey. But be wary he may cause a little extra chaos.

Customize for your Brand

We have built our experience to be customized for your brand. Change colors and add branding; your company can be the race sponsor with billboards and banners added throughout the race.

Paint Drop

Welcome to the Paint Drop Chamber. Have you ever wanted to throw paint all around without the cleanup. This game is perfect for you. You will be challenged with a series of mini throwing games that are easy to play but difficult to master. Throw paint grenades through a variety of rings to score points, make a mess, and have fun.

VR

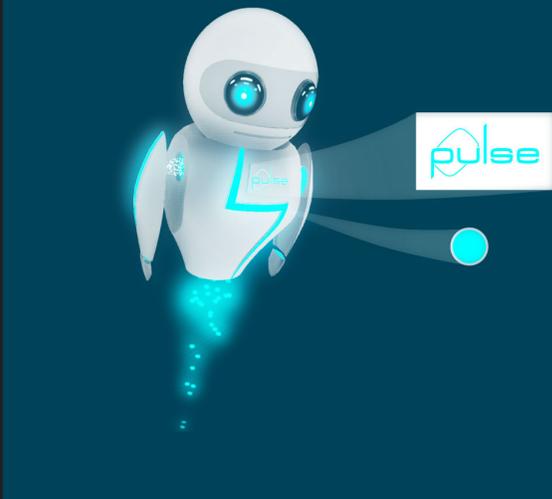

The Game

You start in a small room, you look down at your wrist and see you have been equipped with high-tech wrist bands that inflate paint grenades with the press of a button. Around you are target rings for you to toss grenades through. Fun twists are added with each game like reversing gravity and dropping grenades off of a 10 story tower. When you complete all the challenges and escape the chamber you are rewarded by a fireworks encore that you can create yourself.

Paint Drop for your Next Event

Our paint drop experience is a fun and challenging game that will add excitement and energy to your next event. People will keep coming back for more.

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in-game brand ambassador named Pluckey. Pluckey will be there from start to finish to walk you through each challenge.

Customize for your Brand

We have built our experience to be customized for your brand. Change the paint to your brand colors or add logos and messaging. In the game we have built in a short intermission where you can insert a short video to tell your story. It's the perfect time as you will have their undivided attention.

Paint Warehouse Target Range

Welcome to the Paint Warehouse Target Range. This game combines the fun of a carnival shooting range with colorful spattered paint. The warehouse is your canvas, exploding paint barrels and paintballs are your medium. Shoot targets to score points and see the world you are in turn into your very own Jackson Pollock painting.

VR

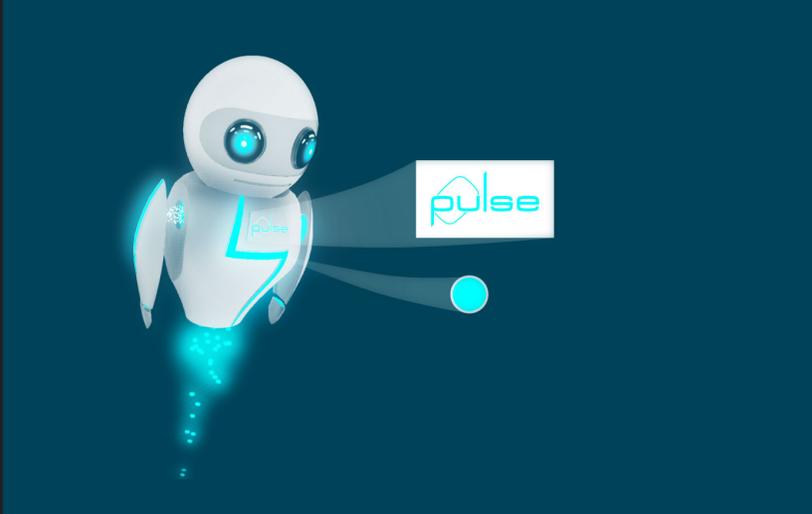

The Game

You look down at your hands to see our custom designed paint gun in each hand. In front of you the brick wall slides open revealing the giant paint warehouse. Immediately targets start moving along conveyor belts. Then to your left and right barrels start exploding with paint creating more targets to shoot. Fountains of paint shoot up all around you. More walls open up and the targets get harder to hit with each level.

Paint Warehouse for your Next Event

Compete for the high score against your friends. This game can be played as a solo game or head to head against your friends.

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in-game brand ambassador named Pluckey. Pluckey will be there from start to finish to walk you through each challenge.

Customize for your Brand

We have built our experience to be customized for your brand. Change colors, add branding and messaging. In the middle of the game we have built in a short intermission where you can insert a short video to tell your story. It's the perfect time as you will have their undivided attention.

Virus Breach

Welcome to Virus Breach. Imagine being shrunk down to the size of a micro chip and put inside of a computer. Your task is to defend the motherboard. You operate the defense cannon while portals open to release an army of viruses that want to infect your computer. You must defend the motherboard from waves of enemies for as long as you can.

VR

The Game

You are standing behind a powerful rapid fire canon. You reach out and grab the two joysticks in front of you. One of them controls turning left and right while the other points the canon up and down. Each handle has triggers. You must blast away the waves of viruses before they reach your CPU and destroy your computer.

Co-op Play

Play with your friends to defend the CPU together. You look straight up and you see your friend above you. It's going to take teamwork to survive.

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in-game brand ambassador named Pluckey. Pluckey will be there from start to finish to walk you through each challenge.

Customize for your Brand

Lounge and Learn

Welcome to our Lounge and Learn world. This is a simple and fun game that teaches the user about your company or brand as they play. It is a great game for beginners and people new to VR. The environment is whimsical and relaxing and can work for all types of companies and products.

VR

The Game

When you put on the VR headset, you are instantly transported to another world. You hear the birds in the distance and can see the pollen wisping around you in the air. You are standing at the end of a pier. Looking forward you see a question sign with True or False targets to your Left and Right. On your wrists are paint balloon generators. As the questions pop up you can toss balloons at the target to answer the questions. This interactive game is a fun way to reinforce your messaging. We can offer this as a turn key VR experience. All we need are your questions and answers and we will take care of the rest.

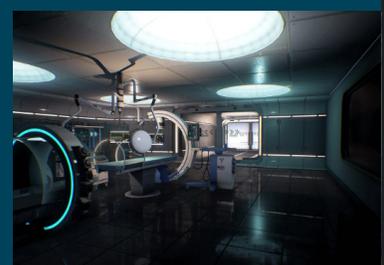

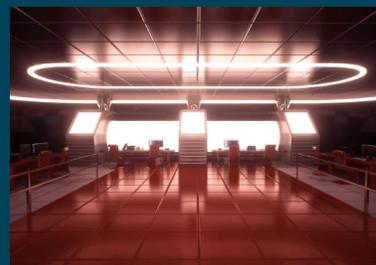

Your Brand Ambassador

Throughout the experience you will be guided by our in-game brand ambassador named Pluckey. Pluckey is there from start to finish to walk attendees through our games and experiences.

Customize the World

Our colorful natural world may not be right for your brand. We can place this game in any of the worlds you see to the right that may be a better fit.
